

JON A. VANIER

Professional Highlights

- Retired in December 2013 as Member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters U.A. Local No. 25 since July 1977
- 1977-1999 Pipefitter/Plumber/Foreman/Project Superintendent/Valve Repair Support for multiple construction companies working with Quad City Nuclear Power Station in Cordova, Illinois and Rock Island Arsenal and Valve Repair
- 1999-2013 Business Agent for Plumbers and Pipefitters Local No. 25 working in contract negotiations, labor management, grievances, labor law and union business.
- 1981 Plumber Apprenticeship Program graduate of the Department of Labor
- 1982 – 2015 Illinois Licensed Plumber
- Pipefitter Certification in April 14, 1986
- 1990-1999 Coordinator/Lead Instructor for various training programs and apprentice classes throughout the State of Illinois and Ann Arbor Michigan for Plumbers and Pipefitters Local No. 25
- Associate In Science Degree at Carl Sandburg College, August 1991
- Illinois EPA Cross-Connection Control Device Inspector since May 22, 1992

Boards Served

- Labor Chair for Exelon Nuclear Midwest Regional Operating Group
- Western Illinois Workforce Investment Act
- Labor Liaison for State of Illinois Central Management Services for contract negotiations
- Labor Temple Association
- Galesburg Sanitary District, President 2006-Present
- Center for Manufacturing Excellence
- City of Galesburg Overall Code Review for 10 years

Coordinator-Instructor Experience/Certifications

- Educational Instructor for Plumbers and Pipefitters Local #25
- Instructor for Apprentice classes for Builder Level and Transits, Advanced Drafting Classes, Blue Print Reading, Valve Repair Classes and Math Classes
- Resource expert for Instructor Manual for the Valve Maintenance Repair Training Course for the National Joint Steamfitter-Pipefitter Apprentice Committee
- Multiple Nuclear Power Industry Operating and Parameters Certifications